GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS LAMBETH TO DISTRICT COURT SEAT

RALEIGH - Gov. Mike Easley today appointed David Thomas "Tom" Lambeth, Jr. to the district court bench in the 15A Judicial District in Alamance County. Lambeth takes the district court seat vacated by the retirement of Judge Ernest Harviel.

"For over 22 years, Tom Lambeth has distinguished himself in private practice in Alamance County as a strong advocate for his clients," Easley said. "His commitment to his profession and community make him an ideal choice for the district court bench."

As a private attorney, Lambeth practiced in both the criminal and civil courts in the district from 1985-2007. He was the first Alamance County attorney to become a board certified specialist in federal and state criminal law.

Lambeth served as chairman of the Alamance-Burlington Board of Education from 1998-2004. He currently serves as Deputy Counsel to the North Carolina State Bar.

Lambeth received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
